Part III Statement of Organization 's Primary Exempt Purpose

Explanation:

ISOC is operated exclusively for educational, charitable, and scientific purposes including:

- A. To facilitate and support the technical evolution of the Internet as a research and educational infrastructure, and to stimulate the involvement of the scientific community, industry, government and others in the evolution of the Internet;
- B. To educate the scientific community, industry and the public at large concerning the technology, use and application of the Internet;
- C. To promote educational applications of Internet technology for the benefit of government, colleges and universities, industry and the public at large;
- D. To provide a forum for exploration of new Internet applications and to stimulate collaboration among organizations in their operational use of the global internet.

Part III. A. Statement 2

Public Policy: The Internet Society briefs members on public policy issues and makes these briefings freely available to individuals around the world via the Internet Society website. Relevant public policy issues addressed in the briefings include censorship/freedom of expression, spam, governance, intellectual property, and net neutrality. The Society also participates in local, national, and international forums that promote awareness of an open Internet.

INTERNET SOCIETY
EMPLOYER ID #54-1650477

Part III. B. Statement 3

Chapters and Individual Members: The Society engages in outreach to Chapters to enable them to connect with one another. The Internet Society also provides unique opportunities for individual members without a Chapter affiliation due to the fact that a local Chapter might not exist in their locality to work collaboratively with ISOC global to further ISOC's mission and strategic goals.

1,029,134

Part III. C. Statement 3c

Organization Members: ISOC and its members engage in mission related support to the IETF (Internet Engineering Task Force) which is the Community of people who contribute to the engineering, open Internet technologies and development of related standards. The Internet Society believes that well-informed individuals are the foundation of an open and global Internet; therefore the Internet standards process is accessible to every person who wishes to participate through on-line processes and its products are freely and easily available to anyone.

906,594

Education: ISOC engages in education, research and training related to the Internet and internetworking. The organization also supports education and training workshops and conferences in developing countries and wherever the need exists. Furthermore, the Society organizes an annual network and distributed system security symposium which addresses important issues such as security and privacy threats.

1,096,114

Communications: The Society supports the international communications needs of a dispersed organization, and supports the charitable, educational and public policy activities of ISOC,

618,058

Major strategic and smaller substantial initiatives: ISOC addresses specific major issues that face the Internet, and seeks long-term solutions to those issues. Current issues addressed are those that impact use of the Internet as a trusted vehicle, as well as long-term solutions for the protection of the identity of those users of the Internet.

375,107

Part III. D. Statement 3d

Internet Engineering Task Force (IETF) Administrative Support Activity
ISOC provides support to the IETF Administrative Support Activity, also known as (IASA) The IETF is a large international community of network designers, operators and researchers, responsible for defining the open standards and protocols that support the Internet. The IETF exists as a collection of happenings and works very largely virtually; has no members or dues, although registration fees are charged for meeting attendance. Three meetings per year are held and all information and standards produced during these meetings, the Internet Society makes freely and easily available to the public.

4,205,478

Part III. E. Postel Grant

The Internet Society's Jonathan B. Postel Service Award is presented annually to honor a person who has made outstanding contributions in service to the data communications community. The recipient of the Award is selected by a Committee of industry experts.

- Line 93B IETF Meetings: Meetings which are held three times a year to bring together an international community of network designers, operators and researchers responsible for defining the open standards and protocols that support the Internet. Registration fees are charged for attendance; however all information and standards produced are free and easily available through the Internet Society.
- Line 94 Membership Dues: Money received from individual members & corporations who support the Internet Society's mission to promote the open development, evolution, and use of the Internet for the benefit of all people throughout the world.
- Line 103C Other Revenue: Money received from the sale of conference proceedings from our annual security symposium.

Statement 8

Schedule A Part III, Line 2d

Periodically, ISOC needs to reimburse Board of Trustee members for travel expenses to Board Meetings in excess of $1,000. The CEO and CFO are also reimbursed for reasonable business expenses they incur during the year including expenses to attend Board Meetings. Reimbursed business expenses are in addition to their normal compensation.

Schedule A Part III, Line 3a

Explanation of Qualifications to Receive Payments: The Internet Society's Jonathan B. Postel Service Award is presented annually to honor a person who has made outstanding contributions in service to the data communications community. The recipient of the award is selected by a committee of industry experts.

The Internet Society also selects 5-6 candidates from various parts of the world to attend the three IETF (Internet Engineering Task Force) Meetings per year as fellows of the IETF. Their hotel, travel and per diems are paid by ISOC during this five day meeting. ISOC tries to get corporations from within the ISOC membership to help to sponsor the ISOC fellowships. The candidates are chosen by a committee within ISOC made up of education, policy and IETF experts.

Exempt Organization Return

OMB No 1545-1709

► File a separate application for each return

- If you are filing for an Automatic 3-Month Extension, complete only Part I and check this box ☒ X
 - If you are filing for an Additional (Not Automatic) 3-Month Extension, complete only Part II (on page 2 of this form)
- Do not complete Part II unless you have already been granted an automatic 3-month extension on a previously filed Form 8868

Part I Automatic 3-Month Extension of Time. Only submit original (no copies needed).A corporation required to file Form 990-T and requesting an automatic 6-month extension - check this box and complete Part I only ☐

All other corporations (including 1120-C filers), partnerships, REMICs, and trusts must use Form 7004 to request an extension of time to file income tax returns

Electronic Filing (e-file). Generally, you can electronically file Form 8868 if you want a 3-month automatic extension of time to file one of the returns noted below (6 months for a corporation required to file Form 990-T). However, you cannot file Form 8868 electronically if (1) you want the additional (not automatic) 3-month extension or (2) you file Forms 990-BL, 6069, or 8870, group returns, or a composite or consolidated Form 990-T. Instead, you must submit the fully completed and signed page 2 (Part II) of Form 8868. For more details on the electronic filing of this form, visit www.irs.gov/efile and click on e-file for Charities & Nonprofits.
