

called by the President, the Board, or on the request of not less than one-fourth of the Organizational Members.

An annual, regular or special meeting of Organizational Members does not need to be held at a geographic location if the meeting is held by means of the Internet or other electronic communications technology in a fashion pursuant to which the members have the opportunity to read or hear the proceedings substantially concurrent with their occurrence, vote on matters submitted to the members, pose questions, and make comments. At all meetings of the Organizational Members, the presence in person or by electronic communications of ten percent (10%) of the Organizational Members will constitute a quorum.

At an annual, regular or special meeting, Organizational Members may take such action as assigned in Section 1 of this Article III.

Section 4. Notice of Meetings.

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of any meeting of a class of members shall be delivered to each member of that class, not less than ten days nor more than sixty days before the date of such meeting, by or at the direction of the persons calling the meeting. In the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be stated in the notice.

Article IV Chapters

Internet Society Chapters are groups organized by ISOC individual members (Article V) who share an interest and belief in the Society's principles and mission, acting according to the Society's standards of performance.

Chapters are formed for the expressed purpose of aggregating individual member interests, expertise and creativity in order to pursue the ISOC mission. Chapters form a community that takes on a variety of programmes and activities. These programmes and activities may include one or more of the following: educational events, community programmes, public policy programmes, networking events and others consistent with the mission and principles of the Society.

Chapters shall have the right to designate Trustees as provided in Article II, Section 1. To be eligible to vote in the election of Trustees, a Chapter must be certified by the Society and meet the standards of performance for a Chapter. The Board shall annually establish an elections schedule including a date by which a determination is made of the Chapters entitled to vote in the election, such a date shall be no greater than sixty (60) days before the close of the voting. Other rights of Chapters, if any, may be specified by resolution of the Board of Trustees.

Article V. Individual Members

Individual members shall consist of individuals who share the Society's commitment to the mission and principles of the Society.

Section 1. Rights of Individual Members.

Individual members shall not have any voting rights with respect to the Society. Other rights of individual members, if any, may be specified by resolution of the Board of Trustees.

Section 2. Chapter Affiliation.

Individual members may form or join one or more Chapters, but are not required to do so to be considered an individual member of the Society.

Article VI - Officers

Section 1. Officers.

The officers of the Society shall consist of a Chair of the Board, a President, a Treasurer, a Secretary, and such other officers as the Board deems necessary. The officers of the Society shall each have such powers and duties as generally pertain to their respective offices, as well as such powers and duties as from time to time may be conferred by the Board. A person shall not hold more than one office at a time.

Section 2. Election of Officers.

Except for the President and any officers appointed by the President, who shall be appointed as set forth in Section 4 of this Article, each
