

Saudi ISOC Chapter Application

- Name of Chapter:

Saudi Internet Society

- The Chapter region and the community it will serve:

Geographical area Riyadh region, Riyadh city, It will serve the individuals and the local Internet community.

Purpose and scope of Chapter:

Enriching the knowledge development of Internet-related topics such as technologies, innovations, solutions, and trends from the world to Saudi Arabia.

Building a Saudi Internet community to keep pace with development in the field of the Internet.

Contributing to the development of the Internet system in Saudi Arabia.

- The main priorities of the establishment of The Chapter.

We want to promote research and development in areas related to the Internet from new technologies in the world of the Internet to Saudi Arabia.

Enable the exchange of experiences, workshops, and panel discussions on internet-related topics. Also, promote the individual's role in developing the Internet.

- List of supporters and partner organizations for The Chapter:

Currently, the Ministry of Communications and Information Technology and there will be partners and sponsors in the future

- Membership:

The memberships will be based on the local regulations in the kingdom of Saudi Arabia, specifically, the executive regulations for the system of NGOs in the ministry of Human Resources and Social Developments, such as (worker membership, associate membership), about the current members, it's under process.

- Requirements for creating a Chapter Text

The local executive regulations of the association system in the Ministry of Human Resources + there will be a Bylaws concerning the association but it is currently under process.

Regulation of National Associations and Establishments Law

- Contact information:

There is currently no official contact information for the association and there will be association-specific means of communication and means of communication currently available are

Dr. Waleed Aloriny
Email: woriny@mcit.gov.sa

Haitham Abdulkarem
Email: habdulkarem_p@mcit.gov.sa